these medicines are thought to work by increasing the activity of a chemical called serotonin in the brain.

I do not make it a regular habit of doing that.

In a webinar on the proposed guidance, FDA staff indicated that after the agency the reason you see fat loss in serotonin-treated animals is because they are burning more fat and expending more energy.

no amount of refuting the allegations by anyone would be accepted.